Salt Worlds Altaussee - Treasure Mountain

Please visit the website for opening times.

Children must be at least 4 years of age to visit the salt mine!

Glück Auf! Have an adventure in Austria's largest active salt mine. Explore tunnels made of pure rock salt, the Barbara chapel and a salt lake deep inside the mountain. During the Second World War, unimaginable amounts of stolen art were hidden here. The 2019 exhibition 'The Luck of Art' tells the exciting story of how the miners of Altaussee saved these valuable artworks from destruction.

1 May to 30 Sept.: 9:30 to 17:00
1 to 31 October: 10:00 to 16:00

European history was written in the Emperor's villa and thus made Bad Ischl the secret capital of the Austro-Hungarian monarchy. See the original chambers of Empress 'Sisi' Elisabeth, where she spent her summers, where Emperor Franz Joseph reigned and where in 1914, the famous declaration 'To My Citizens' was written, leading to the First World War. A walk in the Emperor's Park and to the 'Marmorschlossl' castle rounds off the visit.

Bad Goisern Local History and Landler Museum

Beginning of June to end of September,
Wednesday to Sunday
10:00-12:00

Tours by reservation only

This local history museum contains exhibits about the making of the Goiserer walking boot, shooting, Goiserer violins and memorabilia from a former bone healer. Particularly interesting is the documentation about the agriculturalist and Goiserer Mayor Konrad Deubler (1814 to 1884) - also known as the 'Farmer Philosopher'. The Landler Museum also presents the history and culture of the Protestants who were expelled to Transylvania in the 18th century, the so-called Landler, as well as their descendants. Many of whom originated from Bad Goisern and its surroundings.

#ploetzhof-Old Jail at Baderbach

April-October
Open daily 10:00-18:00

The prison and adjoining rooms in the Plötzhaus were renovated and designed as a museum in 2020. The name of the museum, #ploetzhof, stems from the Plötzhaus which was named for the Plötz Waterfall. The #ploetzhof Museum offers a fascinating glimpse into the world of the past. What was life like at the time and how were prisoners treated? How was a trial conducted and what punishments could one expect?

1 May to 30 September, 10:00-18:00

SUP is very straightforward and easy. The paddler stands on a oversized surfboard and paddles side to side with a long-handled paddle . . . like paddling in a canoe only standing. Although the roots of SUP stem from wave riding, it is incredible fun to paddle on a calm lake or along the river. It's a fantastic body workout, an awesome balance training and is easy to learn. Unlike other types of board sports, everyone can learn stand up paddling in a matter of minutes and will experience success their first time on the board.

Please refer to the opening times on our website.

Groups possible at any time by telephone arrangement.

The Austrian Crime Museum in Castle Scharnstein documents the history of security from the late Middle Ages to recent history. In the impressive rooms of the castle, guests will experience historical law enforcement and the development of the judicial system. Who was questioned in the historical torture chamber? Throughout the three floors, visitors encounter the glory-filled time of the gendarmerie and are guided through the criminal history of Austria with the aid of spectacular criminal cases from the last centuries.

The Kremsmünster Abbey is one of the oldest monastery facilities in Austria. In the observatory, there are still the impressive telescopes which were used for stargazing long ago. A sextant from Johannes Kepler and a priceless collection of globes fascinate visitors in the astronomy hall. The baroque fish reservoir, the art collection with the Tassilo-Liutpirc chalice, the extensive Emperor's Hall, the library as well as the abbey church are among the highlights of the abbey and can be discovered during an abbey tour. New! A world full of wonder is presented by the newly-designed "Wunderkammer" (chamber of marvels). Over the ages, the abbots and monks lovingly stored away their curiosities and rarities here.
